

CORONAVIRUS RELIEF FUND (CRF) INSIGHTS

PandemicOversight.gov now has CRF data through June 30, 2021.

It's the only place to get detailed data on how this money was spent.

What is the CRF?

The CARES ACT made $150 billion available to state & local governments, Tribal governments, and U.S. territories to help cover expenses incurred from the pandemic.

Funds can only be used for expenses incurred between March 1, 2020 and December 31, 2021.

87%

of CRF money has been spent
(as of June 30, 2021)

TOP 3 CRF SPENDING CATEGORIES

- 1 Economic Support ($9.2B)
- 2 Public Health & Safety Payroll ($9.1B)
- 3 Public Health Expenses ($7.8B)

76,200

awards have been funded from the CRF

What's next?

The American Rescue Plan Act created the State & Local Fiscal Recovery Fund, which gave states, local governments, Tribal governments, and U.S. territories $350 billion to further respond to the pandemic. Recipients have until December 31, 2024 to spend the money. We'll share the data on this fund on our website too.

To explore the data, visit PandemicOversight.gov